Miami Valley Peace Maker Award

1. Award Description

The Miami Valley Peace Maker Award is a tribute to individuals who have made outstanding yet often unrecognized contributions to fostering peace and nonviolence in their communities. This award serves as a platform to amplify the untold stories of these exceptional individuals, encouraging others to reflect on the importance of peace and the power of collective action. By celebrating their achievements, the award inspires hope, unity, and a deeper commitment to building a more harmonious world. Recipients are honored with a beautifully crafted commemorative trophy, symbolizing their lasting impact on their communities and beyond.

2. Eligibility Criteria

- Age: Open to individuals of all ages.
- Residency: There are no restrictions on the residency/ citizenship status of the Nominees. Please note that the International Peace Museum cannot provide accommodation in the case such is needed.
