

Dayton Peace Institute Presents:

Peace Pathways: Teaching Non-Violence in a World at War

Program Agenda

Saturday, December 3, 2022 - Peace Pathways: Teaching Non-Violence in a World at War

Attendance Requirement: In-Person at (The International Peace Museum)

Where: #10 N. Ludlow St., Dayton (Courthouse Square)

Purpose: 3-hours of Professional Development for middle and high school teachers + other activities

AGENDA:

- 8:30 to 9:00 Registration & Refreshments
- 9:00 to 9:15 Welcome to the Museum & Introduction to the Peace Pathways Program
- 9:15 - 10:15 Learning Session: Ideas of Peace
- 10:15 – 11:15 Learning Session: Movements and Institutions Promoting Peace
- 11:15 – 11:45 Lunch
- 11:45 – 12:30 Explore the Museum’s exhibits and educational resources
- 12:30 - 1:15 Learning Session: Teaching Contemporary Conflicts
- 1:15 – 1:30 Brain Break: Guided Yoga & Meditation – how to effectively incorporate this practice into the classroom
- 1:30 – 2:30 Review Program Expectations + Q & A

Tuesday, February 21, 2023 - Midterm Meeting

Attendance Requirement: Attend in-person or virtually (optional if your student project summary was submitted in advance.)

Where: #10 N. Ludlow St., Dayton (Courthouse Square)

Purpose: A collaborative touch-base meeting to give teachers an opportunity to discuss their projects, regardless of where they are in the creation process with one another and members of the Peace Pathways Committee.

AGENDA:

- 4:30 - 4:45 Check-in at the Museum or Virtually
- 4:45 - 5:00 Welcome teachers and explain the purpose and timeline for the meeting. Remind teachers about the March 3rd deadline to submit their project summaries to the Peace Pathways Committee.
- 5:00 – 5:30 Teachers discuss their project ideas
- 5:30 to 6:00 Teachers share discussion highlights & Fill-Out Survey
Quick survey to find out if the teachers feel supported, what’s working, not working, and suggestions for continuous improvement

Saturday, April 29, 2023 - Reception & Certificates of Completion

Attendance Requirement: In-person

Where: #10 N. Ludlow St., Dayton (Courthouse Square)

Purpose: Briefly share final projects, review survey outcomes, distribute certificates of completion, receive Museum Family Membership, give away door prizes, and celebrate.

AGENDA:

9:00 - 9:30 Registration, Refreshments, Certificates, Museum Family Passes

9:30 – 9:45 Welcome

9:45 – 10:45 Teachers Share Project Outcomes

10:45 – 11:15 Museum Staff Present Program Outcomes & Door Prizes

11:15 – 12:00 Celebrate, Socialize, and Eat Special Treats